Time Gentlemen Please! by Phil Yates

This is a book that tells the story of Winchester's Pubs, Breweries and Hotels past and present.

The book is available from the Heritage centre, Trust Shop or Booksellers at a price of £10.00.

132 pubs existed within the city boundaries in 1902 plus a number of "taps", beer-houses and malt-houses. From 1852 to 1925 ten breweries were in operation as well as ten hotels.

Today the city's pubs are reduced to 45 with six hotels and another one proposed. Regrettably, no breweries now exist in Winchester. The book is full of nostalgia and is a great read, not only for citizens of long standing, but also for newcomers and tourists visiting the ancient city of Winchester

This book was first published to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the formation of The Winchester Preservation Trust now known as The City of Winchester Trust 1957 - 2007
